K-12 EDUCATOR SUCCESS TRAINING INSTITUTE

Are you in a student support role and would like to learn more strategies? A new teacher who wants more practical applications from experienced K-12 educators? Have you moved districts and are unfamiliar with the new expectations or struggling to meet the different student needs? Perhaps you're teaching a new grade level or a new topic and feel like you need designated time with an expert who can support your challenges in this new role.

If any of these scenarios sound familiar, this training institute is for you! This series of foundational courses are designed for all classroom teachers, from new to veteran. It covers ways to improve your practice and revive your love for teaching. The focus of this course will be actional behavior management strategies and will be taught by lead instructor, Nora Menzies, BCBA. Guest lecturers will teach additional topics to aid in meeting the needs of your diverse student populations.

All classes are FREE. Take one or multiple classes! If you successfully complete all foundational courses, you will receive a Certificate of Completion. For every 15 hours completed, employees at CUSD can earn continuing ed credits – please contact HR for details.
